

Name	The Longitudinal Aging study Amsterdam (LASA)
Description	LASA aims to study the physical, emotional, cognitive and social functioning of older adults in the Netherlands.
Location	Amsterdam and surroundings, Zwolle and sur. and Oss and sur.
Lead Institute	Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam/ VUmc Amsterdam
Cohort size	Cohort 1: 3107 respondents (1992) Cohort 2: 1002 respondents (2002) Cohort 2: 1023 respondents (2012)
Start Cohort	1991
Follow-up	Every three years For full follow-up overview see: https://lasa-vu.nl/lasa-introduction.htm
Variables and Measurement methods	Measurements: main interview, medical interview, clinical measurements and a questionnaire. Main themes of LASA: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Biomaterial • Care • Cognitive • Demographics • Emotional • Physical • Social • Work • Generic For full overview of variables of each theme see: https://lasa-vu.nl/themes/navigator.htm
Availability and type of -omic data	for availability see https://lasa-vu.nl/themes/biomaterial/blood-collection.htm)
Design paper	Huisman et al., 2011
Website	www.lasa-vu.nl